

Blackpool Local Board

A local board of nine members was formed in 1853 under an Improvement Act; in 1871 the number of members was increased to eighteen. Five years later, by a charter of 21 January 1876, the town was incorporated, and the council was to consist of a mayor, six aldermen and eighteen councillors, chosen from six wards.