

Mossley Board of Surveyors

I cannot find a description of the board of Surveyors but from scraps of information available I think that the Board oversaw the production of maps of the region and the development of turnpike roads.